HOLLY HILL HOME READING REWARD

Dear Parents and Carers,

This year we have decided to change the way we reward our children for reading at home. At Holly Hill, we massively value home reading and we clearly see the benefits in school. Reading with your child for a few minutes each day, has huge benefits both socially, emotionally and academically. We have therefore decided to update our home reading reward system in conjunction with The National Year of Reading to promote reading both at home and in school.

The children and staff have already been informed of the change and are really excited to begin earning reads in order to receive a treat at the end of each term. Below is the list of treats and number of reads required to earn this:

50 reads	Goldcrest	Certificate
75 reads	Firecrest	Certificate and bookmark
100 reads	Robin	Certificate and pen
125 reads	Starling	Certificate and badge
150 reads	Eagle	Certificate, badge and cake with Mrs Watson in the library

The teachers will add up the number of reads on the penultimate week of each term to allow treats to be presented in a special assembly. If your child writes in their own reads, it would be great if you would encourage them and check that they have done this.

We are so excited about this change and look forward to hearing about the children reading at home and earning so lovely reading rewards.

Thank you for your continued support,

Mrs. Tia Watson, Assistant Headteacher
