

Newsletter 9 – Friday 15th November 2024

*Apologies for a later than usual newsletter as I was out on training on Friday.

Annual diary dates

Just a little reminder that our annual diary dates were posted on the website in September and can be found here: <https://www.hollyhillschool.co.uk/stream/newsletters/full/1/-//> (scroll down to September's posts). The calendar on the website also has all of these key dates on so that's another good place to look. Our Holly Hill Christmas plan will be sent out in the next couple of weeks. This will have all of the key dates and things to remember in the run up to Christmas.

X tables breakfast – thank you!

A huge thank you to all of the Year 3/4 parents who joined us for breakfast and a X tables update on Thursday morning. Miss Morrison has posted the powerpoint that she shared on the school website: <https://hollyhillnotts.secure-primariesite.net/times-tables/>

A fabulous anti-bullying week!

We had a fabulous anti-bullying week in school last week. Mrs. Watson kicked off the week with a special assembly on Monday introducing our 'Kindness Challenge'. The children have been working as a team in their classes to get as many acts of kindness ticked off as possible. They were rewarded on Friday afternoon with a whole school playtime, allowing children of all ages to play together and move across the outdoor space. This was a real success and the children had a lovely time playing with their friends and siblings.

Snow – argghh!!!

With bad weather forecast this week, just a reminder of how we would inform you of a school closure. We would send a text to all parents as early as we possibly can to inform you of a closure, along with a post on the school website and one on the Friends of Holly Hill facebook page. If you don't hear anything then we are open! The full bad weather procedure can be found here: <https://www.hollyhillschool.co.uk/policies/>

This is a decision that I absolutely hate making – I can never please everyone unfortunately! The decision is always made from a 'safety first' perspective. Sleepless night ahead!

This week...

- Nothing to remember (the calm before the crazy Christmas storm – enjoy!)

Thank you for your continued support, Mrs. Leanne Steed
